

Psychologists

Assessments and evaluations are helpful in U visa cases and asylum applications (Domestic violence, rape, or other abuse).

As a general rule we don't recommend evaluations for Provisional waivers since they are given very little weight by USCIS officers. An assessment/evaluation after only one visit is not very convincing to USCIS adjudicators.

Isarel B. Rosales, Ph. D.  1734 Fillmore Street  San Francisco, CA.94115  415-441-9504  415 441-0272 fax	He also has an office in Marin  behavioralhealth1@pacbell.net
Susan Wilde, Psy.D.  Centro Para cultura y Diversidad  2342 Shattuck Ave, #875  Berkeley, CA 94704  Tel: 510-978-0221	hopeandtaste@yahoo.com  Se Habla Español
N. James Beckett PhD, QME  Licensed Clinical Psychologist  1362 Pacific Ave., #222  Santa Cruz, CA 95060  831-345-3619  Fax 831-466-9456	Email: Jbeckett@onlineportrait.com  Issues of abuse  Depression  Families in crisis/family therapy  Life transitions
Sonia Telle  Oakland, CA  510-395-3824	English, Spanish and French. Immigration  Assessments  soniatelle@yahoo.com